

BCIPI Leaders Meet Minister van Dongen

On the day of the Government announcement requiring licensing of house inspectors, BCIPI President, Noel Murphy, CTech, CHI and Ken McNames, CTech, CPI met with Minister of Public Safety and Solicitor General, John van Dongen. The Minister had asked to meet with BCIPI, ASTTBC, National Association of Certified Home Inspectors and other stakeholders to advise of the Government's planned announcement and ask for the support of all groups to put the new licensing regime in place.

Photo caption:

Minister van Dongen (left) speaks with BCIPI President Noel Murphy, CPI (right) and Ken McNames, CTech, CPI (centre)