

Valuable Information for BCIPI Members

The following links reflect what is happening within our industry, fortunately to our competition. However this is a great education for each of us as we are vulnerable in each inspection within this high risk business. If nothing else this is a lesson in careful analysis of each component of the dwelling regardless of how long it takes to complete the assignment.

I recommend that you visit these sites. One was a TV investigation into CAHPI grow-op inspection, the Sun article covers consumer expectations/ realtor relationships and the last covers new information on the CPCPA website relating to consumers' expectations:

CBC Market Place Jan 8, 2010

Google: cbc market place home inspectors not finding grow-op

Vancouver Sun Jan 9, 2010

Google: vancouver sun home inspection remains a buyer-beware environment

BPCPA Website: new information posted Jan 8, 2010 – bpcpa.ca

Go to Consumer Tips

- Home Inspection Tips
- Latest News
- Don't Overlook Helpful Tips for Realtors